

2008 Year in Review

- 250 Camp Fire kids participated in service learning that teaches youth the importance of giving back to the community
- More than 85% of Camp Fire kids improved their scores on math tests
- Nearly 50% improved their abilities in reading, comprehension and spelling
- Over 450 children received backpacks full of healthy, nutritious food through our Weekend Food Program, which ensures that kids never go hungry through the weekend
- 11,025 meals were served through Kids' Café, a partnership with America's Second Harvest and ConAgra Foods, Inc.

The typical child in a Camp Fire program is an 8-year-old Latina girl.
